

The Neon Museum Scavenger Hunt

Instructions

- Explore The Neon Boneyard, observe the collection, and complete the scavenger hunt below.
- Extension: If you have a device, take a photo at each sign to document your discoveries.

Hidden Gem A sign that you think is cool, but might be overlooked. _____	Flashers A sign that utilizes flashing lightbulbs. _____	Neon A sign that utilizes neon (Hint: Neon glows red-orange). _____	Argon A sign that utilizes argon (Hint: Argon glows blue-green). _____
Expressions Find a sign that features a person or an emotion. _____	Daytime Neon A sign that is red and/or yellow. _____	Nature's Mark A sign that displays a plant or natural element. _____	Past Echoes A sign with historical significance. _____
Animation A sign that flashes lights in a pattern to mimic motion. _____	Favorite Color A sign that contains your favorite color. _____	Image ID A sign that contains no letters or words. _____	Standout Find an artifact that isn't a neon sign. _____
Restored A sign that is restored and lights up. _____	Unrestored A sign that is in and does not light up. _____	Hungry A sign that displays or advertises a food or drink. _____	Your Pick Your favorite sign from our collection. _____

Name: _____

School: _____

Date: _____

Sign Name: Treasure Island

Sign Created: 1993

Today: TI

Did you know?

This pirate skull from the Treasure Island Hotel & Casino is from the family-friendly era of Las Vegas. Other examples of this time include the Luxor, Excalibur and New York, New York.

Converse

- If you could design a theme for a hotel in Las Vegas, what theme would it be?

Sign Name: Yucca Motel

Sign Created: 1950's

Create

Write an acrostic poem for the word 'yucca' to make your partner laugh.

Y _____
U _____
C _____
C _____
A _____

Consider

The Yucca Motel represents the 1950s era of American road-trips where families would make stops at "motor" hotels, or motels for short, along their journey.

Sign Name: Happy Shirt

Sign Created: 1962

Today: University Plaza

Consider

This sign was from a local dry cleaners called Steiner Cleaners. This sign was designed by the owner's daughter. This is an example of an animated sign. Can you see it waving its sleeves?

Create

Design a sign for your own small business.

Sign Name: Sassy Sally's

Sign Created: 1980

Today: Circa

Did you know?

The Sassy Sally's sign uses symbolism to excite customers. Look at the S's in 'Sassy'. What do those S's look like? Why do you think they look like that?

Create

Sketch a sign based on your name.

